

HISTEPS | WG

HISTory of Epistemology and Philosophy of Science Working Group

2026/2027 Program

HISTEP | WG is jointly coordinated by Dr. Matteo Vagelli at the Department of Philosophy and Cultural Heritage, Ca' Foscari University of Venice, and Professor Roberto Gronda at the Department of Civilizations and Forms of Knowledge, University of Pisa.

15 October 2026, 16.00 – 17.30 (CET, Venice Time), in person (Aula Biral, Palazzo Malcanton Marcorà) and online
Jan Von Plato (University of Helsinki), "A Kind of Platonism, Which Does not Satisfy any Critical Mind": A Gödelian Puzzle in the Philosophy of Mathematics

12 November 2026, 16.00 – 17.30 (CET, Venice Time), online
Christoph Schuringa (Northeastern University London), The Unity of Science in Red Vienna

3 December 2026, 16.00 – 17.30 (CET, Venice Time), online
Niall Roe (University of Cambridge), C.S. Peirce and Reasoning through Experimentation

21 January 2027, 16.00 – 17.30 (CET, Venice Time), online
Parysa Mostajir (Case Western University), Instrumental Emphasis, Ontological Consequence: Extending Dewey's Anti-Scientism to AI

25 February 2027, 16.00 – 17.30 (CET, Venice Time), online
Paola Cantù (Aix-Marseille University), Gilles Gaston Granger: Axiomatization, Formalization and Measurement

25 March 2027, 16.00 – 17.30 (CET, Venice Time), online
Claudia Cristalli (University of Tilburg), Doing Philosophy with History (of Science). Insights from Peirce's Philosophical Psychology

22 April 2027, 16.00 – 17.30 (CET, Venice Time), online
Chiara Ambrosio (University College London), TBA

All meetings will be held online, with the exception of the first session, which will be hybrid (in person and online).

To receive the Zoom link, please send a message to matteo.vagelli@unive.it. For further information, visit unive.it/sciplu.